

327

Washington - D.C.
Oct. 13, 1893

A. G. Heaton

Relative to striking suitable medal in Gold,
Silver & Bronze to celebrate Centennial year of first Coinage of Copper Cents.

Metropolitan Club.
Washington.

Oct 13. 93

Director of Phila Mint
Dear Sir

Cannot
this centennial year of the first coinage of the Mint - copper cents in 1793 - be celebrated by the striking of a
suitable medal in gold,
silver and bronze.
Many others beside Collectors would be glad to purchase them.

respectfully

A. G. Heaton

1618 - 17th St N.W.
Wash D.C.

NARA RG104, Entry 1, Box 183

[Abstract:] Relative to striking suitable medal in Gold, Silver & Bronze to celebrate centennial year of first coinage of copper cents.

Metropolitan Club,
Washington,
October 13, 1893

Director of Phila. Mint

Dear Sir

Cannot this centennial year of the first coinage of the Mint – copper cents in 1793 – be celebrated by the striking of a suitable medal in gold, silver and bronze. Many other beside collectors would be glad to purchase them.

Respectfully,
H.G. Heaton

1618 – 17th St. N.W.
Wash. D.C.